Association

April 12, 2016

Prelude to the 2016 Budget

- CHRA and partners launch #Housing4All campaign in advance of Federal Election
- Before and during election, we met with 109 candidates in 14 cities (33 elected, 9 Ministers); election podcast; election website and videos; ongoing messaging support.
- After the election, Liberal government made clear its commitment to housing via Ministerial mandate letters.
- Post-election, CHRA met with Ministers Sohi and Duclos, NDP Critics, and relevant political and departmental staff.

Joint Recommendations – February 2016

- In February 2016, CHRA, along with 6 other housing stakeholders, released a joint statement at a national press conference.
- Joint statement included the following 3 asks:
  - Funding to maintain existing units
  - Funding to build up to 100,000 new affordable housing units
  - Funding to diversify and innovate the sector

Budget Announcements – March 22, 2016

- The Budget committed $2.3 billion over 2 years for affordable housing. Note this funding is over and above existing funding allocations.
- This $2.3 billion is considered a 2 year “Phase 1”.
- “Phase 2” funding will follow development of a National Housing Strategy committed to in the Budget, expected duration 8 years (10 years total).

Additional Information

- Additional funding of $208 million over 5 years to an Affordable Rental Housing Innovation Fund to incentivize the construction of rental units.
- CMHC will consult on the design of an Affordable Rental Housing Financing Initiative to provide low-cost loans to develop rental units ($500 million in loans per year for 5 years)
- The Budget 2015 commitment of $150 million over 4 years to refinance loans without pre-payment penalty will be maintained (available now).

The Path Forward/Next Steps

- Seek clarification on 2016 Budgetary measures
- At Minister Duclos' personal request, CHRA to develop consultation process on government's promised National Housing Strategy (define scope, targetted populations, engagement tools, etc).
- Advocate for adoption of recommended measures as part of a National Housing Action Plan; funding announcements in Budget 2017
