

ABORIGINAL HOUSING MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION

Director, Housing Operations

The Aboriginal Housing Management Association (AHMA) is seeking an effective leader and business manager as their Director, Housing Operations.

Reporting to the CEO, and as a member of the Executive Leadership Team, the Director of Housing Operations will lead AHMA's Housing Operations Division and will be a key contributor to the development and implementation of AHMA's Strategic Plan.

Leading and mentoring a team of portfolio managers, the Director, Housing Operations will support and enhance the operations of non-profit housing and service providers through ensuring the delivery of quality services and safe, affordable housing for the province's Indigenous communities. This includes overseeing financial management, disbursement of subsidies and supporting service providers with meeting the requirements set out in the agreements.

This is a multi-faceted role whereby the Director will be strategic yet hands-on, will promote compliance while building capacity with service providers, and will be a relationship builder and advocate of AHMA.

The ideal candidate brings a Bachelor's degree in a related discipline combined with a minimum of five years' experience in one or more of the following: project management, agreement management, asset management, property management, client services, stakeholder engagement, operations management.

Superior communication skills and the ability to coach and mentor combined with a strong conviction to issues of fairness and justice are essential. Experience working in contract administration for the federal or provincial government is an asset.

The core of AHMA's business is serving the Indigenous community; therefore, a critical success factor for any person who joins the AHMA team is to have an in-depth understanding of Indigenous peoples and Indigenous cultures, preferably through lived experiences with strong British Columbia connections. Preference will be given to applicants of Indigenous ancestry as per Section 41 of the BC Human Rights Code (self-identify).

AHMA offers a competitive compensation and benefits package and relocation support if necessary.

To express your interest in this exciting opportunity, please submit your resume and cover letter, in confidence, at <http://careers.wmc.ca/>

For more information contact:

Max Mollineaux - ✉: maxm@wmc.bc.ca | Tel: (604) 761-4055

Located on the Xwemelch'stn (Capilano) Indian Reserve on Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) Nation Territory in West Vancouver, AHMA is an umbrella organization composed of 41 member organizations that are each Indigenous housing providers, representing over 5000 Indigenous families living in urban, rural and northern regions of British Columbia.

Created for Indigenous peoples by Indigenous peoples, AHMA is the first Indigenous housing authority in Canada and only second in the world.

The team at AHMA is committed to its mission and to Indigenous communities. The work environment at AHMA is engaging, positive, friendly and family-oriented. With AHMA, team members have a chance to make a positive impact to peoples' lives every day.

For more information visit:

www.ahma-bc.org